Dear Mr. White:

Thank you for your recent letter concerning CIA Director William J. Casey's invitation to address the the Southern Center for International Studies in Atlanta.

Unfortunately, Mr. Casey does not have any immediate plans to be in the Atlanta area. He would, however, like to meet with the Center when his schedule permits. I am sorry that I cannot be more definite at this time. Mr. Casey's official duties place heavy demands on his time.

I will be in touch with you as soon as a date becomes available.

Sincerely,

DCI:

Last year you agreed to make an off-the-record presentation to the Southern Center for International Studies in Atlanta. We envisioned that you could stop in Atlanta either going to Palm Beach or returning. The attached letter from the President of the Southern Center for International Studies is a follow up.

Do you have any plans to be in that area soon or do you have any feeling about when you would like to address this group?
